7.1.9 Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

NRI Institute of Information Science and Technology (NIIST) takes pride in the fact that apart from preparing a sound academic foundation of the student community; the college constantly works upon to develop them as better citizens of thecountry.

In this regard, the institute, apart from imparting professional legal education, inculcates a feeling of oneness among the student community through various practices and programs.

Various faculties have always been in the practice of organizing activities that not only initiate but also motivate the students to adopt various practices that promote the “Unity in Diversity” of our motherland.

The institute has well established NSS wing. Through NSS the students learn about the community services and their importance in life. The motive of NSS ‘not me but you' reflects the essence of democratic living and upholds the need for selfless service.

Through NSS camp the students identify the names and problems of the community and gain skills in mobilizing community participation. The college has environmental club to sensitize the students and staff on different environmental issues such as global warming, pollution, deforestation, exploitation of natural resources, ozone depletion etc.The club engages students, faculties, staff and general public in different activities to promote green consciousness for the current environmental issues. The environmental club is a voluntary Club comprising of students and teachers with promotes participation of participation towards the conservation of their environment. The objectives of all these clubs are to make the students aware regarding their constitutional responsibilities as a citizen of the nation.

The College ensures that the students participate very enthusiastically in all such activities. Since the last two years, the college has strived forward with great effort to increase the level of awareness and appropriate practices amongst the students with regard to the following areas:

1. National Identities and Symbols:
